

YOUNG CORBETT DEFEATS SULLIVAN VERY HANDILY

Featherweight Champion Has No Difficulty In Holding Belt--Fight Ends In Eleventh Round.

San Francisco, Feb. 29.—Champion of the featherweight class, "Young Corbett," had no difficulty in retaining his laurels tonight, defeating Dave Sullivan, of New York, in the eleventh round of a 20-round contest. Corbett left the ring without a mark, while on the other hand Sullivan received a terrific beating, only the merciful action of Referee Graney in stopping the contest, saving the New Yorker from having his face beaten into a pulp. Sullivan put up a game fight, and while outboxed, outfought and outgeneraled, he gave the champion cause for worry in one round.

The contest was never in doubt. Corbett held his man safe during all stages of the contest, and it was demonstrated in the fourth round it was but a question of time when Sullivan would have to quit.

After the disastrous fourth round, Sullivan's ability to come up in the succeeding round was a surprise. He seemed to have taken a new lease on life, but it was only a flash in the pan.

CONDUCTOR'S BODY FOUND.

Thousands of Dollars Spent by Company in Search of Popular Employee.

Chicago, Feb. 29.—After the police, employers and friends had searched for him in vain for weeks, the body of James Elick, a northwestern railway freight conductor has been found in the drainage canal at Lockport, Ill. There was a deep gash in the forehead and all his money except a little change was gone. The police believe Elick was attacked on his train by tramps, killed, robbed and his body thrown from the cars, while crossing the canal. Thousands of dollars had been spent by the railroad company in search for the body and a reward of $500 had been offered by a lodge of the Association of Railroad Conductors for any trace of the missing man.

The place where the body was recovered is 23 miles from where it is believed Elick met his death. It is thought the remains had been frozen in the ice and thus kept from being discovered before.

NEWSBOY GETS PROMOTED.

Deputy District Attorney of New York Sold Papers on Street.

New York, Feb. 29.—James E. Brande, who only a few years ago was a little Italian newsboy, was appointed deputy district attorney by District Attorney Jerome, of New York county, yesterday. The lad came to this country with his widowed mother when seven years old and commenced to sell papers for her support. Among his daily patrons was Charles Le Barbier, associated with Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner, whose office was in the Stewart building. Mr. Le Barbier admired the little Italian, and, having many Italian clients, eventually gave the lad a position in his office as interpreter.

Young Brande devoted much time to the study of law and upon the election of Colonel Gardiner was appointed clerk in the appeals bureau. He has since been retained and often promoted and was admitted to the bar last June. Mr. Brande is 27 years old, married and has four children.

SAYS BANK WAS SALTED.

Unpleasant Charges Made in Connection With Cashier's Arrest.

New York, Feb. 29.—A conspiracy is now alleged in connection with the arrest of Charles F. Broach, formerly cashier of the Equitable National bank of Manhattan, which went into the hands of a receiver on February 11. Counter charges have been made by officers of the bank and many more serious crimes than that of forgery, for which Broach was locked up in the Tombs last Saturday, are hinted at which may be brought out at his trial. The capital of the bank consisted of 1000 shares and Broach and Charles A. Nones bought a controlling interest at 107 last summer.

Alfred Lauterbach, attorney for Nones, said: "When Nones and Broach bought the Equitable stock they bought a genuine gold brick. It was a salted bank, with assets which did not exist in good faith. It had attracted the attention of the controller most unfavorably, but this fact was not made known to the prospective purchasers, and letters which the controller had written to the bank stating that the surplus of the bank had been impaired and must be made good, were removed from the file."

Thank heaven for the woman who sees herself as others see her; and who looks herself straight in the eyes as it were, and says: "Stop and think of the times when you have howled your eyes red, and the hours in which you fretted yourself ill. Time lost, time dead; precious moments gone to the dogs. Some of your troubles never materialized and many of those that did come to light weren't so bad in the sunshine of the day. Isn't it true?"

How to make a negro baby white is the problem on which Dr. Jacob W. Hill, of South Bend, Ind., has been working, and which he believes he will solve soon by experiment at a hospital. A prospective mother has consented to be the subject of the experiment. A room in a hospital will be provided which will be completely furnished in red. Walls, ceiling, flooring and furniture, bed clothing and curtains are to be of that color, patient and attending physicians and nurses will wear red gowns, while the only light will come through red-globed lamps and red window panes.

ECZEMA

The World's Greatest Skin Humour.

Affects Every Age and Condition.

The Only Sure Cure is Cuticura.

If there were not another external skin disease known, eczema would be a sufficient affliction on mankind. It pervades all classes, and descends impartially through generations. While some are constantly enveloped in it, others have it confined to small patches on the ears, on the scalp, on the breast, on the palms of the hands, on the limbs, etc., but everywhere its distinctive feature is a small watery blister, which discharges an acrid fluid, causing heat, inflammation, and intense itching, scaling and crusting.

The Cuticura treatment is at once agreeable, speedy, economical and comprehensive. Bathe the affected parts freely with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent, or Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure of torturing, disfiguring humours, eczemas, rashes and inflammations, from infancy to age, when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 60). Ointment, 50c. Box, 25c. Depot: London, 27, Chancery Lane, E.C. 4.
